Jonathan Tice (1841-1921)

(Jonathan, Elizabeth, Jonathan, Thomas A. Jonathan, Samuel, Isaac)

Jonathan was born November 19, 1841 in Berford, Canada and died November 05, 1921 in Yale, Michigan. He married Mary Ann Hollenbeck October 09, 1865 in Lexington, Michigan, daughter of David Hollenbeck and Mary Goheen. She was born November 16, 1848 in Port Hope, Ontario, Canada (Durham East), Hamilton Twp, Ontario per Henry's birth certificate, and died March 27, 1933 in Yale, Michigan--Age 84

Born in Grimsby or Aukaster or Twp. of Sault Fleet, Ontario, Canada, or Berford, Canada. Moved to Michigan 1856, moved from Brockway, Michigan to Big Rapids, Michigan in 1872, to Lynn 1879 and back to Brockway in 1903. He enlisted March 29, 1864, Pontiac in Co. M, 1st Mich. Light Artillery and was discharged August 1, 1865.

Jonathan Tice was 24 when he married MaryAnn Hollenbeck at Lexington, Michigan...but MaryAnn was only 16 years old. Jonathan Tice built his house five miles west of Yale Road and raised his seven children in it. It was VERY small (I've been in it many times...but it is now gone.) Downstairs, there was a kitchen about 6'x7', a dining room maybe 10'x9', a living room maybe 10'x10' and a bedroom maybe 8'x8' with a tiny closet. Upstairs was an open room with a stovepipe through it for heat.

According to Helen Tice Rapley, Jonathan was held at Andersonville Prison, Georgia by the Confederate States. But I can find no verification of this. However, I did get this info off from the internet: Jonathan Tice, D.O.B. 11-19-1841, enlisted in Co. M 1st Michigan Light Artillery on 03-29-1862 and served as a wagon master delivering munitions and supplies. During the war he was captured by Confederate Troops and imprisoned at Andersonville. Jonathan, along with several other Federal soldiers, escaped from Andersonville. He was wounded, recaptured, and then sent to Libby Confederate Prison.

Jonathan moved to Michigan in 1856; living in Speaker Township, Sanilac County in 1865; moved from Brockway to Big Rapids in 1872, to Lynn in 1879, and to Brockway in 1903.

Obituary of Jonathan Tice (1841-1921)

(Jonathan, Elizabeth, Jonathan, Thomas A.
Jonathan, Samuel, Isaac)

Mr. Jonathan Tice was born in Berford, Canada, Nov. 19, 1841, and departed this life Nov. 5, being 79 years, 11 months and 16 days of age.

Oct. 9, 1865, he was united in marriage with Miss Mary Ann Hollenbeck, with whom he lived in happy wedlock for 56 years. To this union were born five sons and two daughters, Solomon Tice, of Detroit; Mrs. John Morgan, of Brockway township; Oliver Tice, Port Huron; Jesse Tice, Lynn township; Mrs. Bunyan Douglass, Brown City; Henry Tice, Port Huron, and John Tice, Detroit.

He is also survived by a brother, Albert Tice, of Mecosta Co., and two sisters, Mrs. Phebe Condon, of Omaha, Neb., and Mrs. Mary McCormick, of Mecosta Co., a number of grandchildren and a host of friends who graciously extend their sympathy at this time to those who mourn.

Mr. Tice began work for himself as a young man, and by hard work and economy has made his way in the world. He lumbered, farmed and served his country as a soldier in the Civil war,, when he enlisted in the First Michigan Light Artillery and served for two years, or in other words, until the close of the war, when he was honorably discharged. During the last two years he has lived a retired life in Yale, in the midst of his friends.

For a number of years he has entertained a strong, desire to know his God in the forgiveness of his sins, and it was his good fortune during the last few months to have the witness of his acceptance with God. Even during his last illness he gladdened the hearts of those who were near by saying, "I was a great sinner, but Jesus saved me". He often expressed a desire to live nearer to Him. He was a great sufferer and he has gone to his reward.

Funeral services were held in the Brick Chapel on Monday, Nov. 7 by Elds. R. M. Dodd and J. A. Avery. Interment was made in Elmwood cemetery.

Saul Solomon Tice (1868-1948)

(Saul, Jonathan, Elizabeth, Jonathan, Thomas A., Jonathan, Samuel, Isaac)

Saul was born June 12, 1868 in Mecosta, Michigan, his Obit says "Yale", Michigan, and died October 01, 1948 in Wayne, Michigan-- Age 80 (His Obit says Detroit). He married Cora Bridget Ferguson July 03, 1893 in Lynn Twp, Michigan daughter of William "Henry" Ferguson and Julia Depeel.. She was born March 04, 1873 in Brockway Twp, Yale, Michigan, and died March 01, 1934 in Detroit, MI - age Abt. 61.

J. Ferguson had 167 acres and Saul Tice had 78. Other landowners in section 13 were W. A. Campbell, Wayside Farm, Sam Bonney, Andrew Curry, Mary Morgan, Stephen McMurtrie, Pleasant Lane Farm--Robert Middleton. Across from the Ferguson acreage in section 12 was A.E. Ostrander. Across from the Tice land in section 12 were Ed. Ohmer and W. Beers.

Saul, my grandfather married the girl next door, literally. Cora B. Ferguson was the daughter of William "Henry" Ferguson and Julia DePeel. They lived in the next house to the west of the Tice Family. Henry was killed by a falling tree, while logging in 1888, leaving Julia with five children ages 8 through 16. Julia's parentage is uncertain as her gt. gt. grandfather "Unknown" was killed about 1759 in the war in Canada fighting for the French. Upon learning of the death of her husband, his wife promptly died leaving a newborn infant, who was then adopted by another French officer by the name of DePeel. So, our lineage became DePeel with no way of knowing who the actual father was who died. Saul and Cora moved into the house that Jonathan had built and raised six children there. Their oldest of seven children died at the age of two. Their oldest three children graduated from Yale High School. They moved to Detroit where Saul could work in the auto factories for 50 cents a day. Their next two sons and their daughter Helen graduated from Eastern High School in Detroit.

Saul and Cora moved back to the farm as Cora's health deteriorated and Helen moved in with her brother Hilton and his wife Aileen in Detroit, so she could finish her senior year in high school and graduate. She then moved back to the farm and cared for her father who was now 65 years old...at that time in 1933, that was old. They stayed on at the farm, where Helen met Hilton Rapley who had been born, and grew up, on a farm near the Tices. When first married, Hilton and Helen lived with Saul. In 1945, Hilton had the opportunity to buy a farm that he had always admired. When they purchased this farm, Saul moved with them and sold his farm to his son Donald. Saul lived with Hilton and Helen until his death in 1948. He had dementia, and would run away,..."going back to the North Woods."
